Hello Everyone

I hope you are all keeping safe and bearing up.
It's been a strange week here and things continue to change at a fast pace.

Thank you for the many kind words of support from many families.

Also thank you by supporting us through following Gov.UK advice:

"If at all possible children should be educated at home, including the children of key workers" and thus supporting the NHS and other key workers.

We hope you are managing to engage with See Saw and the other online resources.
Our teachers report that lots of you are working hard and keeping on learning.
The link below may help support you with Reading at home.

People seem to be enjoying the Jo Wicks Workout sessions at 9.00am each day

We will keep posting links as we find useful things.

Those families entitled to free school meals should now be in receipt of your FSM vouchers as advised. Let us know if you are having any issues with them.
